

STEVE CUNHA

Steve is a long time top call musician in the south florida area. He graduated from the prestigious Berklee College of Music with a major in Guitar performance and a minor in composition.

He played guitar for classic pop groups such as The Drifters, Herb Reed and The Platters, Lee Andrews and The Hearts, The Tokens, and Shirelles to name a few.

Steve currently plays and teaches Guitar, Mandolin, Banjo, and electric bass in all styles