

Gary has been an active professional trombonist for 48 years. He has a wide variety of experiences in Bands, Orchestras, Brass Ensembles, and Cruise Ships. Some notable performances include Sammy Davis, Liberace, Dionne Warwick, Jerry Lewis, and Marvin Hamlisch.

He also has a wealth of teaching experience both in Michigan and Florida and has taught all levels of instrumental music. Gary has a Bachelor of Music Education degree from Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan.