

Giuseppe been playing drums for more than thirty years . He has studied under some of the most accomplished teachers in Europe and the United States.

He taught music at Manna's School of Music in Manhattan and Fraioli's School of Music in Greenwich, Connecticut. Giuseppe performs in various styles including jazz, fusion, funk, soul, R 'n' B, pop, latin and rock. He has played with musicians and artists such as Don Coffman (bass teacher at the University of Miami), Mike Orta (piano teacher at Florida International University), and Nicky Orta (bass teacher at University of Miami), to name a few.

In 2013, together with saxophone player/singer Debbie Pierce, he formed a quartet consisting of some of the best South Florida musicians such as Brad Keller and Nicky Orta. Giuseppe performs regularly all over South Florida with the Debbie Pierce Band plus several jazz, blues and R'n'B bands and artists. He is currently the house drummer at All That Jazz Cafe' restaurant in Sunrise, FL.