

Les is a Keyboard and Mallet Percussion player. He was an Honor graduate of Berklee College of Music in Boston. Graduate of the Katowice Academy of Music in Poland. Music instructor and lecturer of instrumental and classroom music for private schools in Europe, Canada and USA. Author of Music Education programs for private schools. Currently music teacher at St. Jude School in Boca Raton and school band director at Paul Effman Music Group.

Les formerly taught at North Broward Preparatory School, Broward Community College, Miami School of Audio Engineering. He was an Associate judge for Billboard Songwriting Competition and US Songwriting Competition. Associate consultant for America's Got Talent and Piano Showcase, Inc. Credited music composer with BMI.

Les is one of the most sought after Professional music entertainers, performers, writers, producers and arrangers with Blues/R&B groups, big-bands, jazz combos, steel-bands, concert-hall ensembles, music theaters and experimental projects. Music director and music group leader for religious institutions and coordinator/consultant of FL state-sponsored stage music events. Associate music broadcaster with PRTV and WUNR stations. Former member of the Brampton Symphony. Featured soloist with the Last Flight Out Big-Band performing regularly at the Broward Center for Performing Arts, Kravis Center, South Florida Convention Centers, Deauville and Eden-Roc Grand Ballrooms, Seminole Hard-Rock Live, Immokalee Center Stage Live, Disneyworld Seasonal Stage, Miami Museum of Science, NBC and C-SPAN Studios, Dolphins and Marlins Stadiums. Co-leader and founder of the International Polka Band.