

Randy Bella comes from a musical family and is a third generation violinist. A Graduate of the Chicago Conservatory of Music, he has been performing for public since age 5. His 30 years of orchestral experience includes Symphony, Ballet, Opera as well as musical theater. His vast repertoire includes virtuoso solo violin selections as well as jazz, commercial and international music.

Randy has played in the Michigan Opera for over 20 years. He was a concertmaster of the “Phantom of the Opera” and “Music of the Night National Tours” for a decade. He has appeared as a soloist throughout the United States and Canada. Known for his lyrical playing and dazzling technique, he delivers music right to the heart of the listener. Besides his exceptional level of performance, his great ability to communicate with the public creates a sparkling atmosphere at his concerts and always calls for ovations from the audience.
